The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 9, to Tuesday July 12, 1748.

Hague, July 19, N. S.

THE Difficulties which have occurr'd in the Execution of the Plan offer'd for making good the Deficiency occaſion'd in the Revenue of this Province, by the Suppreſſion of the Farms, are not yet removed; and the Town of Amſterdam continues to oppoſe the Method, according to which it is propoſed to levy, proviſionally, the Quotas of the ſeveral Towns. It ſeems their chief Objection to this Plan is, that the Magiſtrates are to be empowered to diſtrain in Default of Payment, and that they themſelves will likewiſe be liable to be diſtrain'd, in caſe they don't remit to the publick Treaſure, at the End of every Month, the Quotas of their ſeveral Diſtricts. The Deputies of Dort having inform'd the States of Holland that a Poſt Office was become vacant in their Town, and the Grand Penſionary having alſo acquainted them, that there was likewiſe one vacant at the Hague, they have been deſired to give their Orders in Conſequence of theſe two Vacancies; and a Reſolution has been taken, by which they empower the Burgher-maſters and Magiſtrates of thoſe ſeveral Towns, where the Poſt Offices, when vacant, are to revert to the Province, to manage thoſe Offices, or cauſe them to be adminiſter'd for the Uſe of the Province, proviſionally, and till ſuch Time as the States are come to a final Determination in regard to this Affair. The States have taken a Reſolution, whereby they appoint the firſt Day of their Meeting in September next for the Reception of the Liſts which the Deputies of the Towns were formerly directed to lay before them, of all the Employments in the Diſpoſal of their reſpective Regencies.
